Whose Say-so is Best?

the worst cases of female weakness, prolap-

sus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects

tion" of a regularly educated physician,

By ELLA MAY BUNNELL

Copyright, 1906, by Ruby Douglas

"Mary, are you there?" sounded from the hallway as a broad shouldered, sturdy young fellow strode eagerly toward the kitchen door. "Of course. Come in," responded a voice cheerily, and Phil entered, taking a bit of the workaday life and

"What is it, Phil?" the girl asked gently, looking into the young man's troubled eyes.

"I think I must be tired tonight," he answered evasively. He attempted to smile reassuringly. A firm little hand stole comfortably into his.

"Yes, but that isn't all," she per-

"Well, Mary, I'm wondering when we are ever going to get married. I've been attempting to master the railroad business, but there is nothing settled as to the future, and mine is an alarmingly small salary." Phil's voice sounded pathetically discouraged, "Perhaps I should have gone into some office and stayed there," he concluded doubtfully.

"No, Phil," protested the girl, "you wouldn't have been satisfied with adding up columns of figures all day or It was really you who saved the train." going over rusty papers. There is a As Mary was about to protest the railplace somewhere among the railroad road official interrupted, looking at workers where you are going to do Phil. your best work, Phil dear," responded, "to go and bring down a time, and I've seen now what you can Each day I wonder what next."

"Bless your heart, Mary!" he murmured as he caught and kissed her and Springdale next morning puffed and You understand it. Will you take itman's eyes grew keen and plercing, and his heart beat tumultuously, while his hand rested firmly on the throttle. The rails shone like silver ribbons in the sun, and the train was soon speed-filled him with the joy of life. Phil laughed involuntarily as he look- complicated movements are set going. ed out of the cab window to see the children in high glee at a game of tag. One station after another he entered on time to the minute. Every other thought than his immediate work was its successor is already born, and by far from him, although Mary was al- the time the first billow has reached ways in his subconsciousness. At the the Azores islands at midnight the seclast station before his home a glimpse of a light, girlish figure made Mary seem especially near for a moment. The girl had Mary's grace and airiness as she sprang on to a car platform, but even the fleeting vision made Phil smile happily, and again the train glid-minutes it had slowed up, and Phil's take the train on. Phil almost patted the throttle as the train came to a stop, and it was with gine. "A beauty," he thought, "and pear at the station door, nodding with | don.-London Graphic. apparent satisfaction as he looked at his watch. The man peered curiously into the engine cab, but he suddenly drew back in horror, and others were, which the song of the reaper is not transfixed by what they saw. Not a heard in some land on the globe. In man moved or spoke. They seemed January is the wheat barvest of Aushelpless before some awful sight.

the panorama spreading out before April, lower Egypt, India, Syria, Cyhim through a vell of smoke, but he prus, Persia, Asia Minor, Mexico and felt powerless. The engine was on Cuba; in May, Texas, Algeria, central fire. Something clutched his throat to Asia, China, Japan and Moroeco; inchoke him. He felt a hot breath June, California, Oregon, Mississippi, against his cheek. Red points darted Alabama, Georgia, North and South out at him from an indefinite "somewhere." He heard a quick, gurgling tucky, Kansas, Arkansas, Utah, Colotempest of sounds. Was it the wind?

haps it was the expression on a face Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, southern haps it was the expression on a face the saw in imagination that did it. He whispered, "Mary," and sprang with all his strength for the opening out of all his strength for the opening out of the cab. As he leaped from the burnand south of England; in August, centre of the cab. As he leaped from the burnand south of England; in August, centre of the cab. ing cab, which was an angry, surging, tral and northern Minnesota, the Da threatening mass, new life came to kotas, Manitoba, lower Canada, Cohim. He began to understand. His lumbia, Belgium, Netherlands, Great mind worked rapidly and with preci- Britain, Denmark, Poland and central sion. As he turned instantaneously to- Russia; in September and October. ward the coaches back of the engine | Scotland, Sweden, Norway and north he saw it all-just what might happen of Russia; in November, Peru

He gathered himself together for the plunge, drew in a long, deep breath, ed against his face, and returned to the the store very much excited and want cab. He had gone with hand out- ed the trimming on her new hat chang-atretched for the throttle. He felt ed. She said that it had been trimmed thankful that it was not necessary for on the wrong side. him to see; he could feel and knew just where to press the throttle most surely. ered the oil tank he had uncoupled the "It doesn't make any difference coaches, and when blinded with smoke whether it ought to be in front or back coaches, and which burning the pressed the and off—perhaps to safety for those in the coaches, 200 souls or more. The next minute seemed hours. Phil was conscious of just one purpose to the wall in church, and I'm not going set away from the esaches, for the to have all that triniming next the knew that the tank of oil would ex- wall. I want it on the other side, so ploce or burn itself out. He leaned far the whole congregation can see it."

The trimming was promptly placed gine seemed to crawl. His breath came on the "church side" of the bat.

hard through clinched teeth; his eyes were set on a spot ahead, but he whispered, "Mary!" Suddenly the engine shuddered and stopped. Phil's hand was still on the throttle. He scarcely knew that he had stopped the engine. He felt a great, exultant joy, for the coaches were far behind. With great difficulty he flung himself toward the open air. Falling, staggering forward, he felt himself seized by a dozen arms.

Did he dream what followed? A pair of strong young arms were around his neck, and his face was being bathed in something cool and weet. He felt the tense silence and wanted to break it. The one word he heard was "Phil!" which sounded like a caress, a sob and a prayer. Then he opened his eyes to smile faintly into Mary's dear face bending over him.

"Mary?" he whispered questioningly. "Yes, dear," she replied. "I came in from the last station on your train, and I intended to skip away quickly, but I wanted to ride with you in the cab just once." Her voice trembled.

Phil turned his face to the wall. The railroad official looked down on the fair head kindly. "A doctor will be here at once," he assured her, "but I think he is all right anyway." He wished he might comfort the girl.

A half hour later Phil lay on a couch in an inner office. Mary's fingers wandered lovingly through his singed hair. His eyebrows were burned, and he looked pale and worn, but he was rallying rapidly.

"You see, Mary," he said softly, "your face was before me all the time.

"You are the man I've been looking "I just got an order tonight," Phil for. I've had my eyes on you for some look toward the coaches a few minutes Mary looked up into his face. "Fair- age, then rush into the flames, I also knight-to-be," she chanted gayly, "it saw that young woman." The official may be tomorrow that you'll win your faltered. "Though she never wavered. spurs. Go forth to conquer, for your she was white, her lips moved, and I knew that she prayed for the man in the cab." The man's voice was husky. "And you're the man I want-with a wife," he added, smiling, "to superin-The engine Phil took possession of at tend that work in the Redding district.

Phil looked at Mary with a question, then responded, "I will-with a wife."

Great Tide Waves.

Those who see the rise and fall of ing over the track. Gradually Phil's the tides in our Atlantic harbors selspirits rose. The beauty of the day- dom think of the wonderful career of for the dew was still on the fields and the moon raised ocean waves which the world about seemed alive and cause the tidal flux and reflux. Such happy—and the pounding of the engine billows not only cross the sea, but flow from ocean to ocean, and in this way ocean. By 4 o'clock in the morning following its passage of the cape the tide billow reaches the English channel, and there the shallow water delays it so much that it does not arrive at the strait of Dover until 10 a. m. Here the ed out of the station, and in a few narrowing channel causes the tide to trip was ended. Another man would rise very high and almost puts an end to the wave. In the meantime another branch of the billow runs around the western side of the British islands, regret that he would give up the en rounds the north point of Scotland and moves slowly down the eastern coast of England until it finally flows up the He saw a visiting railroad official ap- Thames and laps the wharfs of Lon-

There is no month in the year tralia, New Zealand, Chile and the Phil read his danger in the horrified Argentine Republic; in February and countenances by the station. He saw March, upper Egypt and India; in rado, Missouri, Turkey, Greece, Italy. he wondered. He thought it was, but | Spain, Portugal and south of France; in July, New England, New York, Then something seemed to snap. Per- Pennsylvania. Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, at every second. Two thousand gallons of oil were in a tank at the rear of and New South Wales. An Beelesiastical Hat, A milliner who works in a large city says that one day a woman came into

> "But," said the saleswoman, "the trimining is on the fert side. That is where it ought to be."

"Yes, church side! I sit right next

HUNTING BEARS.

sale through druggists, one has to take Him a Wide Berth. the maker's say-so alone as to their cura-tive value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and A wounded grizzly is a mean thing to fight, and if there is a tree handy it is a pretty good thing to climb if anyaccordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested thing gets wrong with your shooting ever, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers say so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of irons. I do not think a grizzly will climb a tree, though brown and black bears will. Any bear is pretty sure to fight if crippled, but I know there is praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each public knowledge, being printed on each public knowledge, being printed on each public knowledge. this difference between a black or separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full brown bear and a grizzly: If you meet a black bear face to face unexpectedly give him five seconds and he will be men have written enough to fill volume out of sight, but meet a grizzly the same way and give him five seconds and you will be out of business. Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennet Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Barthoplow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and accres of others equally eminent. About the most fascinating way to hunt bear, which is even better than quarries: Coal Yard and Main Offices, night work, is to trail him right to his home and meet him in broad daylight on his own doorstep, as it were. It can be done, but everything must be just right. The ground might be covered with a light fall of snow, and the snow ought to be melting. Then the twigs times known as pelvic catarrh and a multiwonk break. One has to be very careful, and when bruin is found, which is generally at the foot of a large tree, one must never forget that instead of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidone there may be two, and, in that case, one must be able to shoot fast and straight, and implicit confidence in the gun he carries is about the best stock in trade a man can possess.

MARINE SUPERSTITIONS.

The Changing Tides and the Launching of the Wick Smack.

In Orkney the ebb and flow of the tides were attributed to the breathing

gantic was he that the simple acts of hours to perform. The resemblance between this nature myth and that of the Greeks is very remarkable. North country sailors scorned at one time to use a compass, for by the motion of the ninth wave, the mother wave, they could, even in the densest tog, ascertain their exact whereabouts and gain the shore in safety. The launching of a Wick smack was for years regarde

as unlucky unless the words which fol-

Fae rocks an saans,

Wi' a' gweed shot.

lieved to follow the utterance of certain words at sea. The salmon is ever a "fine bit fish," and swine, minister,

kirk hare and numerous other words archolemnly interdicted. The presence of a minister in a boat is by many regarded with grave concern, and it is sometimes with the utmost difficulty that a crew can be induced to go to sea if a minister is on board. Those who have sailed with these half Norse, half Celtie fishers must have taken note of the method adopted to raise the "wun."

The mainmast is scratched energetically, and the men "whustle" the while.

Erratic Anne Boleyn.

Of the unfortunate Anne Boleyi headed in 1536, a writer cays: "Even at this distance of time she rises before us as a living, breathing woman of flesh and blood. She was witty, passionate, vivacious and moody in turns;

she was essentially variable and jour naliere. After her elevation to the throne she became vindictive and cruel, but she had many charming qualities. While awaiting her doom at the Tower she was wretched and merry in turns, sometimes imitating her and his 'Tut, tut, tut,' sometimes call-sometimes deep in her devotions. It is the same Anne to the last-high spirit

, unreasonable, with highly strung

the back of her tendency to be hys-

Swords and Beards.

men" wore swords as well as beards,

and their habit of drawing these weapons to settle the most trivial disputes

the cut and styles in beards. During this sword wearing period all "bluff-

en" were their beards cut and hacked

A lawyer was pleading a case before a jury the other day. The party on the other side had a reputation for stingi-suid Sutton in his speech, "if an ant would carry a grain of sand of that

It Would Come "I'd like to go away for the rest of the week, sir," said the tired book-

Agent-Here, madam, is a book that will tell you how to manage a husband.

Weman But, my dear lady, what I want is a book that will tell me how to get one, and I'll manage him all right:

Joy is as much a virtue as benefit

ness. "Why, gentlemen of the jury,

the supreme court and back."

ritic sword combats.

At one time in England all "gentle-gives and a good deal of courage at

-London Standard.

Harmful if not fatal results are below were repeated by the onlookers;

An barren lan's

Keep's free, Weel oot, weel in.

of a sea monster which lay outstretch ed on the confines of the world. So gicine put up for woman's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting the same brown reactive. About the surest place to shoot a bear to stop him quickly, to my way of Sick women are invited to consult Dr. thinking, is directly in the brain. It is ence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Confidence. quick.-Field and Stream. ical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buf-falo, N. Y. 21 one cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

F. O'Neil,

MIGATION HORSESHUEING,

all interfering, overr ching, and lame

426 Bloomfield Ave. near Orange St.

Now is the Time to Store Your Furs.

Guard Against Moths, Fire who was the second wife of King Henand Burglary.

Prudential Building. NEWARK, N. J.

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over $9,000,000.

556 Bloomfield Ave., DEALERS IN

T OTITIET OTO Of Every Description

Parlor and Chamber Suits, Bureaus, &c. fellow's arm he would law him clear to Also Oll Cloth, Carpet Lining, Matting, Mattresses and Spring Bed

always on hand, Upholstering and Repairing done

DISTATE OF MARTIN MONAMARA Pursuant to the order of GRONGE E. RUSSELL, Surrogate of the County of Essex, this day made, on the application of the undersigned administratix of said deceased, notice is hereadministratix of said deceased, notice is hereadministratix of said deceased, notice is hereadministratix of said deceased in exhibit to the subscriber under each or affine mation their claims and demands against the mation their claims and demands against the from this date, or that the subscriber.

Newark, N. J. If You Meet a Wounded Grissly Give

ARTHUR S. MARSELLIS, Sec'y and Treas, HOBACE S. OSBORNE, Pres., Montclair, N. J.

The Osborne & Marsellis Co., Quarrymen and Road Builders.

Broken and Building Stone, Lumber and Masons' Materials. BEST QUALITY LEHIGH, LACKAWANNA AND CANNEL COAL. KINDLING WOOD M. & B. and Long Distance Telephones.

Upper Montclair, N. J.

UP-TO-DATE.

Bloomfield Livery and Boarding Stables. 33 WASHINGTON STREET, BLOOMFIELD, R. J.

range, and it puts him out mighty J. W. HARRISON, Proprietor. W. H. VREELAND, Manager.

L. D. 'Phone 1009-J; Newark 'Phone 63.

These stables are under new management, and fully equipped with first-class horses and vehicles of every description. Open day and night. Service neat and prompt. Good accommodation for boarding horses. expiration and inspiration took twelve

Our Rates are Reasonable.

Your Patronage is Solicited.

GEORGE HUMMEL,

Dealer in the Very Best Grades of

Well Seasoned WOOD, Sawed or Split. YARD AND OFFICE:

361 BROAD ST., BLOOMFIELD.N.J

John Rassbach & Son. THE FLORISTS.

Special Attention Given to Decorating for All Occasions. FLORAL DESIGNS ARTISTICALLY ARRANGED, Cut Flowers, Flowering Plants, Palms, Ferns, Etc.

BLOOMFIELD CENTRE AND GREENHOUSES, GLEN uncle Norfolk, who had conducted her to the Tower, with his head shakings Bloomfield, 1134-TELEPHONES-Gien Bidge, 1151. ing for supper directly after dinner, > CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY Repairing and Engraving. Special Attention to Clock Work. Will call for and deliver them at your home.

Thirty Years' Experience. PROMPT SERVICE.

OVERTON'S OLD STAND, in most outlandish shapes, trying to convey the impression that they were bad men, who had been in many ter-280 Glenwood Avenue. Near D. L. & W. R. R. Station. BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

A. McKinney

PSTATE OF WILLIAM A. PRANCIS, Pursuant to the order of GEORGE E. RUSSELL Pursuant to the order of GEORGE E. RUSSELL.
Surregate of the County of Essex, this day
made, on the application of the undersigned administrator of said deceased notice is hereby gives to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or ammation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased, within also months
from this date, or they will be forever barred
from this date, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting of recovering the same against the subscriber.

GEORGIE ANNA FRANCIS. "There is no need for you to do that." replied the employer. "Stay liere, and the rest of the week will ESTATE OF MARY C. J. DELANEY, Pursuant to the order of George E. Russell.

Surrogate of the County or Essex this day
made on the application of the undersigned,
made on the application of the undersigned,
mouth to the ordelions of said decised to degiven to the ordelions of said decised to deprive to the subjections under outs or affirm hibts to the subjections under outs or affirm hibts of the subjections under outs or affirm hibts of each floorand within nine months
from this date, or they with he forever burned
from prosecuting or recovering the same
against the subjections

WILLIAM F. CORNAI.

Health! Rest! are assured under the most favorable conditions at

Cambridge Springs, midway between Chicago

and New York, on the Erie Railroad.

You ought to know all about it, Erie booklet, "The Bethesda of the Middle West," on application to the Ticket Agent or D. W. Cooks. Ganeral Passenger Agenty

> BO YEARS EXPERIENCE TRADE MARKS

UNN & CO. 30 1 Breadens, NEW YORK

cence is.-Vandyke.

and

N.J.

anged.

thous and cost. values ndreds d the r best

.50, also for this ... 1.19 s, special .. 2.50 and fourd at 1.59 plain toes at 1.00 icher and , special .. 2.00

io, special 2 65 white and at 500 offered in to II and ... 35c there, ooze nt leather, pecial 690

wo eyelet

t.... 100 oxford ties, sp'e'l 750 metal and csion soles, 1.95

heels and Filled.